28 ways to grind, roll, bake, vape, or blaze it better.

BY CARLY FISHER

December 20, 2019

Despite the fact that weed is now publicly traded on NASDAQ and CBD has flooded the shelves at TJ Maxx, believe it or not, blazing has...actually never been better? Why, you ask? The gear! True "cannasseurs" finally have high-end ceramic smokeables, teched-out kitchen gadgets, and collectable art objects worthy of their tastes. Of course, there's also a lot of junk out there too, hence this curated gift guide to steer you right. Perhaps you know a lovable stoner and need to get them a gift for the holidays? Here are 28 highly-functional and/or beautiful things to buy for anyone who enjoys ganja. Sure, if you're ordering this stuff now, you might not have it in time for Christmas...but luckily most stoners are pretty laid back about deadlines!

Minimalist, clean, and light-weight, no one will judge your wake 'n bake habit when you use something this beautiful.
